ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

With Remembrance Day just a couple of days ahead, the hare had thoughtfully taken the opportunity to provide an interesting lead-up to this significant day.

With the run starting from the Gilles Plains RSL Club, there was a strong turnout despite the near 40 degree heat. With the start called at 7.00pm, the promise of a genuine p*iss stop inspired the pack (although Anyfink made sure she wasn't going to be fooled twice in row!).

With trail heading off down the North East Road, we meandered around Manningham before crossing Hampstead Road in the direction of Broadview. A number of checks and false trails did little to slow down those front running b*astards (mainly Bigus and Muck), who were totally oblivious to the heat of the day. The more sensible runners conserved their fluids, cautiously anticipating the promised p*iss stop.

After once again crossing Hampstead Road we turned the corner to find the hare dispensing the real deal from the back of his wagon. The walking pack were already enjoying the beers but there was plenty left in the monster sized jug. With home not too far away, we made the most of the beers before dispensing with the remaining part of the run.

Most runners and walkers were back at the trailer well before dark, and were treated to a cooling ice block before replacing their fluids at the trailer.

With everyone having survived a sensible run, we could proceed to enjoy the warm evening, secure in the knowledge that the trailer had just been reloaded with a barrel of Coopers pale. After a long circle we paid our respects to those who had sacrificed so much.

The Ode of Remembrance, read by Sp*oof, was followed by a moving rendition of the Last Post, courtesy of Elf and S*hit Lips.

Many thanks to the hare for what was a most memorable evening!

LEST WE FORGET!
