ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

. When Pete the Pom and Soak remind you not to forget the torchlight for their run then you'd better take notice and make sure you load it up with alkaline energisers!

As we gathered for the run Muck was seen reassembling the $1.74 special while the rest of us warmed our a*rses around the fire bucket.

As we made our way to the first check, the Moped gave a burst of speed to loosen up the joints after the recent 50,000 kilometre service, while IceCan made considerable effort to sure that everyone noticed his presence as he fulfilled his AH3 obligation to at least make it to the first check.

With the first check about a kilometre from the run site, and the tall hills appearing menacingly ahead, it was clear that this was not going to be a simple stroll in the park, and when we counted the runners after the first check, our numbers had yet again been reduced to the magical number of seven.

With Bus Stop and Buddha still nursing recent injuries, the rest of the pack would have been well ahead if not for the cunning checks laid by the hares. With plenty of forks in the walking tails there was ample opportunity to slow down Muck, Chesty, Bigus, Nifty and Sp*oof.

After heading up through Cleland we were treated to a mother of all climbs before heading left in the direction of Upper Greenhill Road and even more climbing before we got to the top.

After a long slippery decent were once again returned to civilisation and looked forward to reaching the trailer. Surprisingly the hares had decided that some of us aspiring multi-millionaires might enjoy a tour around the mansions of the area before returning to the trailer where we could consume our well-deserved beers.

The tired pack arrived back at the trailer after one and a half hours, and reliably confirmed that torches were indeed required for the run. The unrepentant hares were justifiably punished at the circle for keeping the pack away from the trailer for more than one hour.

With no one lost or injured on the run (apart from perhaps getting slightly wet) there was general agreement that it had been a well set run in a great running area
