HARE NEEDED FOR 28th DECEMBER CONTACT MUCK

ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

Not sure where he got his long range weather forecast, but somehow Chesty managed to pick the first decent running day for months. With a warm clear day and a great running area, all he needed to do was to kick off the run at 7.00pm sharp to ensure that the torches would not be required.

With the runners keen to make the most of the daylight, the 6.30pm run started punctually at 7.00pm and we were soon crossing the road in the direction of the Squash Centre, wondering where the f*uck were Bigus and Buddha.

After heading over Walkerville Terrace we were confronted by the first check alongside the O'Bahn. This difficult check offered plenty of alternatives and would have taken longer to break if not for a good Samaritan walking her dog who pointed us in the right direction.

As she predicted, trail was found on the other side of the O'Bahn taking us towards the river in the direction of the city. After a few minutes of running we encountered the walkers who had taken a direct route from the trailer to the second check. With Bigus and Buddha quietly joining the pack we were soon heading in the direction of the city and after a long meandering trail came out on Hackney Road before turning for home.

Little D*ickus, despite the handicap (or perhaps assistance) of the white Labrador, had managed to keep pace with the pack up until the point of the long suspension bridge. At this point the dog concluded that only fools and hashers would cross on a bridge like that and proceeded to search for his own path across the river.

Leaving Little D*ickus and the unconvinced dog, the rest of the pack followed the running trails back to Walkerville. As we once again approached Walkerville Terrace the possibility of a p*iss stop at the Sussex appeared likely, however, our cunning hare elected to avoid any possibility of being charged for passing by a pub, and sensibly laid the trail well away behind the Walkerville Football Club.

After a long hard run, the front-runners were back at the trailer by 7:50pm, just in time to enjoy their first beer before darkness took over. With pleasant weather and a comfortable run site, there was little to do but enjoy the beers, charge the guilty, and enjoy some more beers while awaiting the Nosh
