ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. “GET IT COZ IT’S YOUR JOB”

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON’T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

With the run slightly delayed by the reluctant generator, we received an ominous briefing from the hare: “Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to complete this run which has NO CHECKS, NO FALSE TRAILS, NO HILLS AND IS AS LONG AS ALL HELL. You may be rewarded with a p*iss stop close to home, if you survive”! Despite the intimidation from Moped, eight of us were soon on our way towards Elizabeth Street, quietly wondering whether there was any truth in the hares briefing. Thankfully, we soon encountered the first check, although this only managed to slow down the front runners a little.

With a generous sprinkling of checks and falsies, the front running b*astards could not get too far head, and with Elf finally remembering to bring along his instrument, there was little chance of the back runners being left far behind.

As our Trail Master had failed to make the starting grid, being considerate b*astards, we made sure to join each of the checks to help him catch up. We were more than a little surprised, therefore, when we found at him at the check just after the Tea Tree Gully Golf Club. Apparently he had managed to get hold of a mud map from the hares which had allowed him to short cut to the front of the pack. Short-cutting a*rsehole!

Around the same time, Crème Puff managed to round up another stray runner, swelling the pack to ten runners, Despite Muck’s guidance, and the local knowledge of the “ring-in”, we had considerable difficulty breaking the next check as we approached the foot-hills. By this stage we were anticipating the p*iss stop and there was general agreement (fuelled by Sp*oof and Nifty) that the p*iss stop must have been at C*ocknee’s place.

After considerable checking, however, trail was discovered in the direction of home. After a long downhill stretch along Grenfell Road the hopes of the p*iss-stop were fading. A quick left turn however, revealed Buddha’s 4X4 innocently hiding in someone’s driveway. This provided welcome relief in the form of the promised p*iss stop. After a pleasant beer it was a short down-hill jog back to the beer wagon with the refreshed pack arriving back in just under the hour.

With plenty of beer on hand, a long circle gave the hares plenty of time to prepare the Moped & C*ockneee special “Angus Burgers”. Many thanks to the hares for an enjoyable evening.
