ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

. With floods and heavy winds predicted, some may have expected a very small turnout. Our seasoned hare, however, knew damned well that it takes more than a bit of s*hit-house weather to keep the AH3 at home.

Sure enough, eight runners, and a dozen walkers, took off from the warmth of the fire bucket to do whatever was necessary to work up a thirst. With no dry ground left to lay trail, Buddha elected to opt for a live hare run, capably assisted by Bigus, who acted as a sweeper c*um a*rse-kicker.

With rain being blown in from nearby West Beach, it looked like we were in for a cold and wet run. Little did we know, but Buddha had a monster of a hill climb planned to keep us all warm. Up past the caravan park, we were soon making our way up the trails to the top of the Old Belair Road. After holding the check at the top, we proceeded to make our way along the logging trails, giving us a chance to feel the 100km per hour winds first hand. Strangely enough, there were no other b*uggers out for an evening stroll on such a pleasant evening!

After threading our way around the edge of the quarry, we once again encountered the Old Belair Road, and were treated to a long sustained down-hill run back to the trailer. With little traffic to slow us down, we were soon back enjoying cold beers and the welcome warmth of the trusty fire bucket. Thankfully, the weather turned kind to the AH3, and with plenty of shelter available at the run site, we were able to enjoy the remainder of evening in relative comfort. It is hard to imagine a better way to enjoy a Monday evening

Genitalia was heard to say she was getting things up her crack not sure of the meaning. She was sitting on the esky with Too Dogs at the time who just kept quiet.

With the weather colder than a well diggers a*rse everybody was to cold to misbehave so after the circle and a feed most pi*ssed of to the warmth of their homes and loved ones. (or someone else's loved one's)
