ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

1758 30th Nov Balmoral Reserve

. There is considerable evidence that a hard year of hashing is starting to take its toll on many of our members. Ongoing reports of knee injuries, ankle injuries, Achille's tendons, cuts, grazes and gashes that refuse to heal, have recently been overshadowed by reports of selective amnesia, Alzheimer's and other deteriorations of mental capacity. Recent examples of these afflictions include:

- Members forgetting belongings at the run site
- Members forgetting to go to work
- Hares forgetting which way the "arras" go
- Runners forgetting which way to follow the "arras"
- Runners forgetting to bring their running shoes
- RA forgetting appropriate attire
- A*rseholes forgetting to volunteer to set run

Thankfully, in recent times, we have managed to recruit a couple of youthful members who cannot only run pretty well, but can also manage to bring along their running gear and help to break the checks. We could only wonder what would happen then, when Kreme Puff (spelled with a K) and Little D*ickus (spelled with a little d*ick) combined to set the run. Would the remainder of the pack be able to survive without these two young b*uggers to blaze the trail?

With the run starting at 7:10pm sharp, we were soon on our way to the first check. No problem so far! After running for a couple of kilometres, however, we realised that the Alzheimers had spread to the hares, who seemed to have forgotten about laying checks. Worried that the pack would be scattered all over Dernancourt, Bigus sensibly fabricated a first check and got the pack back together. Thankfully, we soon encountered the real first check, only about 2.5 kilometres from the start! Some quick calculations projected a 15 kilometre run, and it was at this point that each of the runners prepared their own exit strategies, just in case the hares had visions of taking us to Tea Tree Plaza or beyond.

After plenty of meandering around the streets, we ended up near Kildare College, before the trail took an ominous turn to the left. Nifty and Bigus enthusiastically followed trail in the belief that the p*iss stop was just around the corner (and in fact it was) while the rest of the pack made use of what little geometry they could remember, and plotted a less ambitious triangle in the direction of home.

After taking the front runners through some shiggy in the direction of Tea Tree Plaza, the trail followed the cycle tracks back towards home, giving the runners a pleasant downhill run back to the trailer. Those runners who scored A's for geometry were enjoying beers from the trailer within the hour, while Nifty and Bigus jogged in about 15 minutes later, having scored A's for effort and F's for common sense!

Around the trailer, there was general agreement that it had been a pretty good run, with the length being just about right. A few additional checks and falsies would have been nice to keep those front running b*astards at the back of the pack where they belong.
