HARES ARE NEEDED FOR RUNS SEE MUCK

ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES
MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING
THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

1778 12th April Cow Shed, Oakden 27 Runners

In response to some late changes to the hare-Q, Muck and Full Stop stepped up to take charge of the Monday Run, and the Cow Shed at Oakden was the venue of choice.

With ten starters for the run, the pack was once again advised that there would be the possibility of two p*iss stops, and we could only wonder if the hares would roll out yet another of Elf's relatives.

The first check towards the shopping centre provided plenty of options before trail was eventually found along Fosters Road. With the trail turning back through Hillcrest and weaving back and forth, the back runners struggled to keep up, but were greatly assisted by the blow jobs of the Hash Horn, as well as the chorus of barking dogs.

A cunning check across the North East Road suggested the possibility of a p*iss stop at The Windsor, unfortunately the DS signs were not to be found, and we were soon making our back across the North East Road, threading through the parks and side-streets.

Once again the front running b*astards got well ahead, however, a long winding loop around the park regrouped the pack before we made our way towards Sir Ross Smith Blvd and discovered the welcome p*iss stop, hiding under the Rotunda in the park.

Suitably refreshed, it was a short jog back to the cow shed where there was no sign of any cows, but the more than welcome sight of the trusty green trailer, well stocked with a fresh keg of pale.

With the runners and walkers back within the hour, the circle was soon convened. Despite the long list of charges from the circle, the hares managed to time the cooking well, and served up a great serve of barbecued fish.

Many thanks to the hares for an enjoyable evening
