Hash Trash 12th July 2010 - Run 1791

Borthwick Park, Thornton Street, Kensington 22 Runners

I believe eight runners left on the run but were a bit lost as to where they were, even though the trail was well marked as it should be, as both hares have years of experience between them.

Buddha led the pack winding around the many streets as they finally came across the first check; this allowed the back runners to catch up. They then crossed Kensington Road, then on through the Marryatville school yard to Tusmore Park where Gravel Rash was seen to push over a large tree in an attempt to cover up trailBut the back runners found the on trail at the check in the park and bolted on to the next check that's where the pack got a little confused because there was no hash horn, the runners came from all corners..... Sp*oof found the on trail and all runners found their way safely back to the trailer and the fire bucket.
