HARES ARE NEEDED FOR RUNS SEE MUCK

ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

Having enjoyed a memorable run the last time we journeyed south, we were keen to see what Condom would have in store for us. We were not to be disappointed!

With 22 signing on for the run, about 10 runners set off on the trail taking us out past the shopping centre and along a pleasant downhill stretch along Panalatinga Road. A quick check saw the trail heading into the reserve, closely following the creek bed. Thankfully Condom had applied his local knowledge and laid a trail that was generously peppered with checks, false trails and some nasty loops that ensured that the front running b*astards covered plenty of extra ground.

With most of the pack unfamiliar with the area, the front runners had little choice but to follow the trail, while the more cautious followed Condom. This strategy worked well for most and ensured that the front runners could not get too far ahead.

After straddling the creek line for a couple of kilometers, we were pleasantly surprised to find a large oasis straight ahead in the form of the Emu Hotel. As we rounded the building we were especially pleased to see the welcome DS sign at the check and promptly proceeded to line up in the Sportsman's Bar for a most welcome beer. Unlike our experiences in the Northern suburbs, our southern hosts rolled out the welcome mat and indeed made us feel most welcome.

With thirsts quenched, we were soon making our way back towards home, making extensive use of the track which used to be the old rail line many years ago. After threading through a suspicious number of parks, the front runners arrived back at the trailer in just over the hour, with the rest of the pack coming in soon after.

As we rugged up for a typical southern suburbs summer evening (howling winds with a chance of snow), there was general agreement that it had been a pretty good run, with good checks, tricky false trails, and a very welcome p*iss stop. Not surprisingly the walkers also reported a good walk, having managed to find a closer watering hole in the form of the Woodcroft Tavern.

After a relatively short circle, we were soon enjoying the Nosh of sausages and rissoles before eventually departing for the long trip (for most of us) north.

Many thanks to the hare for well set run and a most pleasant evening
