For the Anzac Day run, what better place to start from than the car park opposite the Magill RSL Club? With the walkers excited at the possibility of a leisurely stroll to the Tower Hotel, we were left with about a dozen runners to set out on the run.

Up through the UniSA Car Park, we soon reached the first check at St Bernards Road. By this stage the Tower Hotel was almost in sight and Draino sensibly decided that the walkers had the better plan for this Monday evening.

Trail was soon found across the oval and we were soon heading up towards the Magill Training Centre. With v*irgin runner Allan keen to explore the many false trails we were soon on our way up the Auldana Reserve area before threading across to Auldana to admire the views.

By this stage Allan had decided that the sign of two backwards “arras” was definitely not good news, and he quickly understood why most of the pack were keeping a very close watch on Sp*oof when we got to the checks.

Having seen enough of hills and coastal views, we were soon enjoying the long downhill run back to Magill, past the Tower Hotel (What? No drink stop!), eventually back to the trailer. Front-runners were back in about 50 minutes, with the rest of the pack not far behind.

As the hares ripped the tops off of the cans that had been donated for the nosh, the circle was convened. After the traditional minutes silence was respectfully observed, the charges were soon flying thick and thin. Interestingly, our fearless GM was determined to prove that “the buck stops here”, and proceeded to take responsibility for quite a number of crimes. In the meantime, Two Dogs tried her best to look innocent while stirring the pot full of Woolworth’s (past the use by date) specials.

With the circle over, hungry ar*sholes were quickly lining up for firsts, seconds and thirds, providing even more conclusive evidence that after enough beers, hashers will eat just about anything!

Thanks to the hares for a memorable evening.

ON-ON----FULLSTOP

. Toilet Paper

Fresh from my shower, I stand in front of the mirror, complaining to my husband that my br*east* are too small.

Instead of automatically telling me it's not so, he uncharacteristically comes up with a suggestion:

"If you want your br*east* to grow, then every day take a piece of toilet paper and rub it between your Br*east* for a few seconds."

Willing to try anything, I fetch a piece of toilet paper and stand in front of the mirror, rubbing it between my br*east*.

"How long will this take?" I ask.

"They will grow larger over a period of years," he replies.

I stop. "Do you really think rubbing a piece of toilet paper between my br*east* every day will make my br*east* larger over the years?"

Without missing a beat he says, "Worked for you're ar*se didn't it?"
