Don't Forget Torches for Next Week's Run

HARES ARE NEEDED FOR RUNS SEE MUCK

ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

1776 29th March Osborn Street Beulah Park 25 Runners

For the last run before the end of daylight saving, we all looked forward to a good hard run without the need for torch-lights or wind-cheaters. With over 10 runners (including the latecomers) there was plenty of camaraderie as we made the most of the ideal hashing conditions.

Despite the hare's warning of rain affected trail, the b*loody big "arras" had withstood the previous day's downpour and we were soon making our way east through the leafy housing areas.

With plenty of willing runners, the checks were quickly broken, although a few well set falsies ensured that the front-running a*rse-holes could not get too far in front. While the front-runners were forging ahead, the more observant amongst us noticed that we had been continually going uphill since the start of the run, and even worse, we had been heading away from home all of this time.

After passing through the reserves in the Kensington Gardens area, way beyond St Bernard's Road, the trail eventually turned in the direction of home. After passing us by a mansion that looked something like 1313 Mockingbird Lane, the trail took the front-runners on a meandering path through the residential area, while the more sensible runners made the most of the street lights along Magill Road, to enjoy a long downhill stretch back to the beer wagon.

Front runners were back at the trailer within the hour, strangely enough, just ahead of the walkers and well ahead of the Pub W*ankers.

After plenty of refreshing beers, the circle was convened and saw a large number of fines, after which Soak wheeled out terrific Nosh, which not only managed to survive second third and fourth helpings, but also managed to fill that gigantic packing crate that Muck calls a lunch-box!

Many thanks to the hare for another enjoyable Monday evening.

ON-ON-----FULLSTOP

Wong

Su Wong marries Lee Wong.

The next year, the Wongs have a new baby.

The nurse brings out a lovely, healthy, bouncy, but definitely a Caucasian, WHITE baby boy.

'Congratulations,' says the nurse to the new parents...

'Well Mr. Wong, what will you and Mrs. Wong name the baby?'

The puzzled father looks at his new baby boy and says, 'Well, two Wong's don't make a white, so I think we will name him...

Sum Ting Wong
