1785 31st May Norman Walk Mitcham 25 Runners

With the trailer in place, a few trusted Hashers were seen trying to organise some light for the night but seemed to be having a bit of difficulty with the brand new addition to the trailer.

"Sign on" Roochas voice is heard coming from the dark "but bring your torch so you can see what you are doing"

Just then, out of the dark with stomper in hand, comes the Hare."That didn't take long" he said, "I only set off about 5.30pm"yeah right was the thought that passed through the minds of the Hashers, remember the Hare doesn't lie.

Suddenly, there is a strange noise. When I say strange, it is a noise that we at Hash have not heard for a couple of weeks.

My God, another miracle, because with the noise, came light.

No it wasn't Moped standing there with his pants down around his ankles, telling us where he thinks the sun shines from but the more quiet and pleasant noise of our new generator.

A brand new, you beaut model that should serve Hash well for many a year

With the euphoria of the generator out of the way, some dribble about getting your feet wet and the call to make sure that the 2 new runners (Just Mike & Just Tim) don't get lost or left behind, the pack were sent on their way.

Out across the Norman Walk reserve and under a couple of bridges that even ELF had do duck under, the pack soon found themselves heading up towards an oval.

"Close the gate "comes the call, as the pack pass through the 1st of 3 gates. It was as if they were being herded like sheep in the Stock Yards.

That probably explains the smirk on Mucks face and we thought that he just had wind.

Trail from here then went bush as the pack fought their way up the side of some steep bank eventually reaching Brown Hill Creek Rd.

Not content with having to fight through the scrub and steep slippery climb, Whiskers thought that it was time that he enlightened Deaf K*unt about the significance that this area has in the Mens AH3 history.

Before we knew it we were heading across Fullarton Rd, past Mercedes College and Carrick Hill into the streets of Springfield

Ahhh, what a lovely place to be. So nice, that Nifty thought that he wouldn't mind down grading from his current abode and buying something in the area, pointing out 1 of the many houses that were 2 or more stories high and with 2 or 3 garages tennis court etc.

Even the Security Guards are friendly up this way as we received a friendly wave and giddyay from a passing patrol car while waiting at a check.

With the parting words of Buddha about keeping an eye on the new runners "so they don't get lost or get left behind" still ringing in our ears, it was evident that it was a complete waste of breath.

First to come out of the foot hills and back onto the streets Just Mike & Just Tim caught up with the late arrival because I went to the wrong venue, short cutting front runner Chesty.

It was at this point that we lost them. Not because they wandered off trail but because no one could keep up with them, these boys seemed to be in a hurry. Perhaps they wanted to get back to see how well the new generator was working.

With the rest of the pack slowly winding their way back through the streets of Netherby they soon found themselves back at the trailer and once again back insight of the new runners.

With our winter woolies on, a nice cold beer/wine/softie in hand and a roaring fire bucket it was time to settle in for another night of Hash camaraderie

Overall a very good run plenty of trail and a good length considering the time that he had to set it in

SONG----- Glory Glory

ON-ON----FULLSTOP

Little Bruce and Jenny are only 10 years old, but they know they are in love.

One day they decide that they want to get married, so Bruce goes to Jenny's father to ask him for her hand.

Bruce bravely walks up to him and says, "Mr. Smith, Jenny and I are in love and I want to ask you for her hand in marriage."

Thinking that this was just the cutest thing, Mr. Smith replies, "Well Bruce, you are only ten years old. Where will you two live?"

Without even taking a moment to think about it, Bruce replies, "In Jenny's room.

It's bigger than mine and we can both fit there nicely."

Still thinking this is just adorable, Mr. Smith says with a huge grin, "Okay then how will you live? You're not old enough to get a job. You'll need to support Jenny."

Again, Bruce instantly replies, "Our allowance, Jenny makes five bucks a week and I make 10 bucks a week. That's about 60 bucks a month and that should do us just fine."

Mr. Smith is impressed Bruce has put so much thought into this. 'Well, Bruce, it seems like you have everything figured out. I just have one more question. What will you do if the two of you should have little children of your own?"

Bruce just shrugs his shoulders and says, "Well, we've been lucky so far."
