1781 3rd May Santos Stadium 28 Runners

Well here we go again,another Monday night and another night of Hash.

Hash Mug,check,Hash Bowl,check,Hash Bag check, Money for sign on/drink stop,check, right, now time to head off,oops,better check where I'm going.

What the!!!

Mile End,where in the h*ell in the Northern Suburbs is Mile End?

I'm sure the Hares tonight are ELF & The Fat Controller, so why in the h*ell am I going South of Grand Junction Road in need of a water bag, when I could be going just around the corner.

Well done to the Hares for their thinking (very rare in Hash)

With the pack predominantly coming from the Northern Suburbs and hence where most our runs are from,these 2 Hashmen took it upon themselves to go out and show the rest of Adelaide that, yes, Hash still runs all over the place,not to mention trying to get a few more of our South of G. J. Rd runners to come along.Good effort boys.

The Run.

Where else would you expect a bunch of finely tuned Hash Athletes to turn up and run from but non other than Adelaide's best running track - Santos Stadium. Well the closest we could get to it anyway,being under the bridge next to the car park.

With a few words of wisdom from our Hares, both packs of runners and walkers headed off in the direction of Bakewell Bridge in search of trail.

It was a shame that Stinky was not on trail tonight as he would have seen what a well laid trail with real 'arras' looked like.

With new roads,paths and tracks around since our last venture out around this area,the Hares took full advantage at the checks.As the front runners went out in search at the 2nd check, it was heard that there was a possibilty of 8 directions the trail could go.As we had 14+ runners, this was no problem and the pack was soon on their way through the Parklands heading towards the City.

Having a torch as bright as a light house,courtesy of Gravel Rash, can be very handy, especially when searching around in the dark tree lined grounds of the parklands opposite the Newmarket Hotel.Not being able to find any Port players up to no good in the bushes, the pack eventually found their way heading back towards Port Road.

Spotting ELF short cutting (despite being dressed in black so he wouldn't be seen) across the Railway Oval,Bigus D*ickus thought, well if is good enough for him it's good enough for me.With the pack reunited, Bigus found the check opposite the Police Barracks.

As Bigus checked 1 side of Port Road and Moped and Muck checked the other the On On was heard being called behind them as the pack headed up the road to the Old Adelaide Gaol.

Not ones to go backwards Moped & Muck decided to explore a bit further on through Bonython Park until they found the trail.Mean while Bigus who had completely lost trail and everyone else decided to head for home.

From the Gaol, the Trail took the pack out through Bonython Park across Port Road and up Phillips St, past a "PUB" and to the check from hell,according to short cutting front runners Moped and Muck who had earlier found all 5 falsies (not happy Jan) before eventually finding the right trail and home.

Here the pack, minus 1 (Condom, he thought he would follow his own trail) wound their way back through the streets of Thebarton and Mile End,crossing Henley Beach Road,at a "PUB" before arriving back to the trailer for a well deserved drink.

Overall a very well set and marked run

Will I Live to see 80?

Here's something to think about.

I recently picked a new primary care doctor. After two visits and exhaustive Lab tests, he said I was doing 'fairly well' for my age. (I just turned 68.) A little concerned about that comment, I couldn't resist asking him, 'Do you think I'll live to be 80?'

He asked, 'Do you smoke tobacco, or drink beer or wine?'

'Oh no,' I replied.. 'I'm not doing drugs, either!'

Then he asked, 'Do you eat rib-eye steaks and barbecued ribs?'

'I said, 'Not much... my former doctor said that all red meat is very unhealthy!'

'Do you spend a lot of time in the sun, like playing golf, sailing, Hiking, or bicycling?'

'No, I don't,' I said.

He asked, 'Do you gamble, , or have a lot of s*ex?'

'No,' I said.

He looked at me and said,... 'Then, why do you even give a s*hit?'

Notices

Don't Forget Torches for next week's run
