Don't Forget Torches for Next Week's Run

HARES ARE NEEDED FOR RUNS SEE MUCK

ATTENTION ALL HARES

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO GET GINGER BEER & ICE, REMEMBER THAT HARES MOST IMPORTANT PLEASE. "GET IT COZ IT'S YOUR JOB"

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE A RUN CUMMING UP, DON'T FORGET TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO COLLECT THE TRAILER FROM THE PREVIOUS RUN SITE. IF SOMEONE ELSE IS TOWING THE TRAILER FOR YOU, IT WOULD BE A GOOD GESTURE TO THROW THEM A SIX PACK

1777 5th April Kelly Rd Opp Plaza Holden 20 Runners

. With daylight saving coming to an end it was back to the torch-lights, but fortunately, not the cold weather. With the trailer primed and lit up, the pack was soon making its way to the first check, slowly coming to grips with night running.

In the absence of the recent front running a*rseholes, C*ondom stepped up to the plate, and, looking somewhat like a rejected coal miner, proceeded to enjoy the false trails and loops that were really designed for more far more deserving a*rseholes.

With the promise of two p*iss stops on the run, Elf was setting a very strong pace, and sprinted up the driveway to the first "p*iss stop" at D*ickhead's workshop. Unfortunately, this turned out to be a cruel prank by the heartless hares, as we were treated to the scene of an Elf's picnic, complete with Elf's twin and a bottle of Elf P*iss. This turned out to be too much for our Elf to bear, and resulted in the first case of fratricide ever witnessed on the AH3.

After looping around the back of D*ickhead's workshop, we continued to make our way past the reservoir, over the North East Road and Grand Junction Road before encountering a real "p*iss stop" along the Linear Park track. With no more Elf look-alikes, and real beer instead of Elf P*iss, the pack proceeded to enjoy a well earned "real deal" p*iss stop.

After following the Linear Park trail, we diverted to the right to follow the dry creek bed for a few hundred metres, before eventually cutting across behind Plaza Holden and back across the North East Road back to the trailer.

Despite the hearbreak on the run, the trail was very well set and managed to keep the pack together really well. After a long, hard run, we all looked forward to a nice relaxing beer.

By the time we arrived back at the trailer, however, the rumours of the knobbed gnome had spread throughout the North East, and some alert public-minded residents had sensibly called the Police, concerned that they may suffer the same fate as Elf's Twin.

Despite the stressful situation, the circle saw a large number of charges including twins, lookalikes, and those that had lost twins on the run. With Chesty keeping the police at bay with tales of Irian Jaya, the RA tried to portray a distinguished image, despite having the gown on inside out, forgetting to on-down the hares, and having beer coming out of his ears.

Thankfully, the Police had more serious business to attend to than listening to old Elves tales or tales of Irian Jaya, and we were all pleased to see them f*uck off and a generous quantity of Pizzas arrive, courtesy of the Anyfink Delivery Service.

Many thanks to the hares for a b*loody good run and a f*ucking great Monday evening!

Computer Problem

I was having trouble with my computer. So I called John, the 11 year old next door whose bedroom looks like Mission Control, and asked him to come over..

John clicked a couple of buttons and solved the problem.

As he was walking away, I called after him, 'So, what was wrong?

He replied, 'It was an ID ten T error.'

I didn't want to appear to stupid, but nonetheless inquired, 'An, ID ten T error? What's that? In case I need to fix it again.'

John grinned. 'Haven't you ever heard of an ID ten T error before?'

No,' I replied.

'Write it down,' he said, 'and I think you'll figure it out.'

So I wrote down: I D 1 0 T
